GOVERNMENT PLANS TO RE-DIS-TILL CONFISCATED LIQUOR TO GET NEEDED ALCOHOL.

Request That Confiscated Liquor Be Turned Over To the War Department-Much Wet Goods Captured May Be Turned Into Alcohol.

Nashville.—Instead of destroying the great quantities of alcoholic liquors which come into the possession prohibition laws, the United States government requests that these liqnors be turned over to the war department for redistillation to secure the pure alcohol. The war department is in need of alcohol, and it is believed a great amount can be secured by redistillation of the confiscated bever-

In a great many counties of the state it has been the custom of some officers to pour the intoxicants into Gleason.-Five of Gleason's young streams, but in others the captured "goods" are sored in the court house or warehouses.

> In Nashville, Memphis and other large cities there has been a great amount of alcoholic liquors confiscated in the past few months.

Chairman Smith of the state council of defense has received from the war department a request that he ask the co-operation of the authorities in this state in this matter of recovering alohol. Chairman Smith addressed a letter to all the district attorneys general of the state requesting that they co-operate in the matter.

Fuel Administrator Returns.

W. E. Myer, federal fuel administrator, returned to Nashville from Washington, where he conferred with the national fuel administration in regard to the coal situation in this state. Mr Myer reports the work of fuel onservation in the country moving along satisfactorily in many ways, with the officials endeavoring to remove the remaining obstacles to fair and equitable distribution of coal.

One great obstacle to prompt and fair distribution of coal is the fact that a very large number of coal mines merits of ouster charges filed against assert that contracts entered into prior to the enactment of the fuel control law require most of their output and leaves a very limited amount for general public consumption. The government is now engaged in investigating all prior contracts and whether they are enforcible by holders. After this investigation it will then be posfble to more accurately determine the amount of coal that will be available for the general public.

Current talk in Washington was to the effect that severement control of all railroads and coal mines is imminent and that this extraordinary step a non-resident of Tennessee, so that TA STRONG DAFT, GEORGE may be taken. The government has endeavored by every means and agency at its command to make this step.
